YOUR CONDUCTOR

Tina Reibl is a lecturer and examiner at Trinity College London. She has been an enthusiastic vocal teacher and workshop leader for 25 years.

After training at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama she briefly worked as a professional singer before pursuing her real passion for education.

www.tinareibl.com

Tina's teaching career took her from working as a peripatetic singing teacher to lecturing Performing Arts followed by a role as teacher of Musical Theatre at a well-known stage school.

After working as an educational consultant for Slough Music Service Tina has travelled throughout the UK as a Teacher's Trainer since 2006, specialising in accelerated learning and vocal and choral training courses as well as running Maidenheads' large Community Choir. For the last 6 years Tina has also worked on various cruise liners, running passage choirs around the globe.

Tina's music sessions are invariably cheerful, energetic, inspirational and enjoyable. she describes herself as an "edutainer".

A competent accompanist will accompany the choir on this singing holiday.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

This will be our third creative holiday, combining sing, art and beautiful surroundings to help participants not only to develop artistic skills but also recharge mind, body and spirit.

Food will be mainly vegetarian and we would request a 'disconnect to reconnect' policy where mobile phones and electronic devices remain in the room and are only used when absolutely necessary in order to ensure that the focus remains on being in the here and now.

This year we will offer the opportunity to do a solo performance and encourage participants to bring an own choice piece we will work on in individual coaching sessions with the chance to be performed in the final concert . This is by no means obligatory and singers may also team up for duets or a small ensemble.
